

November 29, 2011

Dear Sage College Students,

Ever feel like you're in the right place at the right time? Well, if you are enrolled at Sage College, you should feel that way now!

We are very excited and proud to share with you that Sage College IS the #1 Court Reporting School in California! Yes, it's true.... We have the highest overall pass rates and have produced more California CSRs in 2011 than ALL other court reporting schools in California! We did it again!

Not only that, did you know that we also completed our very intense and in-depth accreditation process this year, and we had 0 findings on both campuses and for all programs! This means we are meeting all of the standards and expectations of our accrediting body, and we continue our accreditation approvals with stellar recognition.

2011 has been a very challenging year for us, as we have all worked extremely hard to be the very best we can for you, our students.

We hope you have noticed the improvements and changes we have made throughout the year. Most importantly, we have made every effort to serve you, our students, by providing excellence in education.

So as you reflect on your year, and plan for your future, we can assure you, you are in good hands as a student of Sage College. We will never forget that you are here to "Change your Life", and we are honored to be part of your process.

Yes, we will push you. We will challenge you. We will perhaps cause you a little stress, and you may even feel a little insecure at times... but you must know that you will also be better for it all in the end. Growth and achievement is what you signed up for, and we couldn't be more proud of the staff and faculty we present to you to guide you every step of the way.

I know this is a very busy time. I know these are times of challenge and stress for many various reasons. But, I encourage you to take a moment to reflect. Reflect on why you are a student. What are your dreams? When will you complete? Who will also benefit from your accomplishments? Are you truly committed to your own success? Do you believe in yourself? These are all very important and telling questions, because your behavior is, and will, mirror what your answers are to each and every question above.

We are personally very excited to end 2011 with such fabulous news and we look forward to 2012. Only good lies ahead as we follow our own personal motto, "Make progress every day." With this, we are focused, confident and faithful that we will get where we are going.

I invite you to adopt our motto and share in one of the many tools we use to continue improving and achieving our goals throughout the year.

Take a moment to reflect on the past year... stay focused on your goals for this 4th quarter 2011, and be proud that not only are you on a path to achieve great things, but that you are in a place that cares about your success as much as you do.

Remember... "Make Progress Every Day" ... four very powerful words! Repetition is the mother of skill!

Walk tall and proud and always believe in yourself!

Sincerely, your Executive Directors

Lauren Somma, CSR, B.A.
Sharon Goupil, MBA

